Love the smile at the end of your presentation. It's cool that you are doing this other character ... Love your ending.

Wow! Your subtle facial expressions were so spot-on and added so much depth to the performance. There is such a maturity and thoughtfulness to your work. I loved watching your character problem-solve throughout the scene while still maintaining that underlying sense of hope. You trusted the quieter moments and didn't feel the need to push, which made the performance feel incredibly grounded and authentic. Beautiful work!

Faith again, I absolutely loved your performance! You jumped in at the last minute to read an additional scene cold, and you were amazing. You made excellent choices, had such a natural presence, and really stood out. I'd love to arrange a Zoom meeting to meet you and your family and discuss the possibility of representation. You have something very special!"

Keep up the great work, and you are very young!

With continued training, hard work and not quitting you should be booking lots!

How lucky are we to see you twice today! I'm glad we had a chance to see you working with 2 scene partners and tackling different characters. You handled this one very well too! Keep your eyeline focused (it seemed to wander quite a bit in this scene) and don't ever be afraid to move a little more on your mark to keep the body language as believable as possible. That can simply mean just looking down at times or turning your body at times but it can really add some layers to the scene :)

Last minute cold-read. I liked this scene more for her. Nice pacing and she was a lovely scene partner.
