Wonderful look. When you are waiting, just like in figure skating, if there is a minute or two before you are to speak, stay still, professional, and take that moment to breathe. For being so young, you have a bright future, so make sure you pay close attention to those details. Maintain eyeline. LOVE HOW YOU REACHED OUT FOR THE CARD. People remember movement.

nice job - great energy - try to be a little more grounded - get to know who the character is - keep up with your training

You are Cuuuute! Very nice self-taping setup. For audition clothing, stick to solid colours. You don't want to distract the viewer with patterns, logos, words, etc, because then they are staring at your clothing instead of your face.

Nice job with your scene partner :)

What a cutie! Love this little one- would be a great duo with her dad for commercials. Keep taking classes as there is 100% potential.

Lighting could be improved to see your face and emotions better.

Acting was good, but really don't be shy with some lines and let your natural emotions shine through. Keep up the great work!

Love your headshots & really nicely formatted resume as well - good job! Scene: You have the most sweet presence on camera, love it! Your smile is gorgeous! This scene was well suited for you. You portrayed your character so genuinely and I loved how you allowed yourself to be YOU while also playing a character. You have the sweetest tone in your voice and you were very well prepared for today. Keep up the great work and I hope you continue to enjoy acting as I believe you have a bright future ahead of you :)

Good listener, maybe a little more excitement at some point in the scene. More facial expressions. Loved the chemistry with and father.

She is adorable! While watchable - off the top -- I feel like she is not connecting with her scene partner - saying the words but listening and connecting. She anticipated the ending. Green but potential

Wow you are just the cutest! Very solid slate, you come in with great energy, nice! A bit "figgidy" during your scene, be careful with this, try and maintain your focus the entire time. Wow, it must be so fun to be in a scene with Dad, so cool!
