YES!!!!!! It's no secret that I think Layla is... an alright actor. Ok, I lied! SHE IS AMAZING. I think I may know a good role for her, I will try to remember! Play it as a pirate next time.

R -So cute on camera Layla! Come to Fireside Talent ! LOL Make sure not to cut off the top of your head and raise your eye line just a little even if the other character is a child so we can see your eyes better. Great job and role for you. You are very bookable:)

So sweet and tender! You're doing very well, and I liked how tender the "bug" line was. Even though you're clearly too young to be a mom, I got the feeling and the sense of mothering. So very well done!

Thanks for stepping in Layla! A young mom...I can believe it! You always do a great job and I'm not sure if we're supposed to leave feedback for you or not considering you were a last minute replacement but the scene was very short & sweet and you delivered a sweet, maternal and comforting presence that, in my opinion, was what the scene called for, so thank you :)

Layla as a Mom, I see it somewhere down the line in the future, you're so sweet! :) Great slate Layla! During Silver's state, you could have left looking at the lens maybe instead of looking away.. Great concentration and softness to the character approach in your scene. My one biggest piece of feedback is I did notice your eyes were darting a bit back and forth and not necessarily so focused on your mark/eyeline. Something to think about for future. Assuming you just jumped into this scene though with less prep.. Also, at end, don't forget to always hold your character intent and not drop your scene, even through silence.
